Bun Vibe

We believe in creating memorable moments by incorporating pop culture and humour into traditional gifting occasions, as well as the less acknowledged life events like breakups, fuckups and everything in between.

Meet the Founders

PRIYA DONELLY

Co-Founder/Creative Director

TARA DUNCAN

Co-Founder/Client Service Director

Bad on Paper was created to rebel against the overpriced and generic options available in the greeting card category.

Priya and Tara have been friends for years and both share a rude, crude, self-deprecating sense of humour. Between them they can relate to everything that life has to offer, from living the single life, going through heartbreak, buying houses, long term relationships, career changes and becoming a parent.
