

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Regarding Heroscape: Age of Annihilation

Q: Why bring Heroscape back now?

A: At Avalon Hill, we are first and foremost gamers, and we've recognized that a number of the games we loved as kids were out of print and only available for hundreds of dollars via resale. And when the original designer of Heroscape, Craig Van Ness, joined our team, bringing back Heroscape was a no-brainer. We're very excited for existing Heroscape fans to return to the world they loved, and to introduce the battle of all time to new fans as well.

Q: Can I play Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition with my older Heroscape sets?

A: Yes, the Avalon Hill team made it a priority to make sure fans of Heroscape can use all of their existing Heroscape figures and terrain mixed in with the Age of Annihilation set.

Q: How many figures are included in Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition?

A: Age of Annihilation contains 71 figures - 7 large figures that sit on a two-hex size "peanut" base, and 64 figures with the standard single hex base. Additionally, there are five more figures that can be added through stretch goals.

Q: Will Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition be found in retail stores after the project ends?

A: Our focus is currently on getting the Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition Has Lab funded. Should this project meet its funding goal, we will then focus on delivering the game to everyone who backed it. After that, we may look at publishing an edition of Age of Annihilation more suited for retail stores.

Q: Will there be any way to get the Has Lab exclusive figures after this campaign?

A: No. As it says, the Thyraxis Dragoon and Scavorith, Lord of Ruin are exclusive to this Has Lab campaign and these figures will not be available outside of this project.

Q: Will Heroscape continue to be supported after the Has Lab?

A: If the Has Lab for Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition is successful, our first focus will be delivering it to all the backers. After that, we would love to continue the Heroscape line should the demand exist.

Q: Why aren't the figures of Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition painted?

A: Creating a game today isn't the same as it was 10-15 years ago. We wanted to find the right balance between offering a premium product and making it affordable for fans old and new. We also understand there are fans out there for whom painting is part of the miniature gaming hobby. We decided that Age of Annihilation will come unpainted and that the figures for each faction will be a different color. That way you will still be able to easily identify figures on the battlefield while still allowing for the painting side of the hobby to thrive.

Regarding the Has Lab website

Q: When will I be charged for this project?

A: Backing a Has Lab project is a promise to pay when the project ends if it has successfully reached its goal. For Heroscape Age of Annihilation: Vanguard Edition, the project ends on Nov. 15, 2022 at 11:59 PM EST. Your chosen method of payment will be charged the next day on Nov. 16th.

Q: Will I be charged if the project does not succeed?

A: No. You will only be charged if this project reached the designated goal of 8,000 Backers.

Q: Is there an additional charge for shipping?

There are no shipping and handling charges for orders placed to the contiguous United States. For other regions, shipping and handling charges will be calculated at the time of checkout. For the full Hasbro Pulse Shipping & Return Policy, visit <https://hasbropulse.com/pages/shipping-return-policy>.

Q: I live outside the US. Can I place an order?

A: We currently ship to all US states, Washington DC, Puerto Rico, the US Virgin Islands, most of Canada, and APO/FOP addresses. Unfortunately we are not able to ship to Quebec. Our partner sites can also handle order from the UK, Germany, Italy, Austria, Spain, and Germany. To back out project from those regions, please head to:
