THE STORYLINE

EASTER FUN

The 8th grade leadership council is planning a giant Easter egg hunt inside the local elementary school. The plastic eggs will be filled with peanut-free chocolate and candy, as well as gift cards, coupons, toys, etc. You and your friends get stuck in the kindergarten classroom while filling up the eggs. No one told all of you the lock does not work properly, and the door should never be closed.

You call the elementary school principal for help on the PA system. She informs you that you will have to wait for the custodian to get back from his meeting at the school board office. While you wait to be let out of the kindergarten room, you and your friends explore your old classroom.
