

Mars Patel Bundle

Season 1: Episodes 1 - 10 Questions

PDF & Digital Editions

2 Peas and a Dog

Middle School Teaching Resources

RESOURCE INCLUDES

- Detailed Lesson Plan
- Answered Keys
- 5 Multiple Choice Questions for Episodes 1 – 10
- Season 1 Unit Test
- PDF Format
- Self-Marking Google Forms Format

PDF & Digital Formats

EXAMPLE PAGES

MARS PATEL SEASON 1: EPISODE 1

Name: _____

Instructions: Circle the letter that best matches the question.

1. The title of the podcast is 'The Unexplainable Disappearance of Mars Patel'. Which statement best expresses the subject of the story?
A. Aurora and Jonas have disappeared and Mars is next.
B. Aurora has disappeared and Mars has a crush on her.
C. Aurora has disappeared, but no one is listening to Mars' about her being missing.
D. Mars is a troublemaker that creates stories about his friends for attention.
2. How does Mars develop as a character over the course of the episode?
A. The reader learns little about Mars because he is always in trouble.
B. The reader learns that Mars is a major character that is concerned about the disappearance of his friends and no one is listening to him.
C. The reader learns about each character equally. Mars is a minor character.
D. The reader learns that Aurora is a major character with no speaking parts.
3. How does the author create suspense in the episode?
A. The code red gives the reader the feeling that something bad is about to happen.
B. Aurora's disappearance creates suspense that carries throughout the episode and keeps the reader intrigued.
C. Mars' real name is not Mars and keeps the reader wondering what his real name is.
D. Mars' crush on Aurora keeps the suspense of whether she is avoiding his calls or not.
4. Why does Jonas leave the hiding spot during the code red?
A. Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and left to use the restroom.
B. Jonas believed that the code red was real and he went to check on his sister.
C. Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and he decided to go home.
D. Jonas believed that the code red was real and he ran home because he was scared.
5. How does Mars' interaction with Jonas' mother and the detention teacher contribute to the overall meaning of the podcast?
A. Mars believes the detention teacher knows that Jonas and Aurora are OK.
B. Jonas' mother and the detention teacher are ignoring Mars' concerns about the disappearance of Jonas and Aurora.
C. Jonas' mother and the detention teacher see Mars as a troublemaker that makes up stories about his friends for attention.
D. Mars believes that Jonas and Aurora are not missing, but are ignoring his phone calls and have blocked him on Instagram.

EPISODE 1 ANSWERS

1. The title of the podcast is 'The Unexplainable Disappearance of Mars Patel'. Which statement best expresses the subject of the story?
A. Aurora and Jonas have disappeared and Mars is next.
B. Aurora has disappeared and Mars has a crush on her.
C. Aurora has disappeared, but no one is listening to Mars' about her being missing.
D. Mars is a troublemaker that creates stories about his friends for attention.
2. How does Mars develop as a character over the course of the episode?
A. The reader learns little about Mars because he is always in trouble.
B. The reader learns that Mars is a major character that is concerned about the disappearance of his friends and no one is listening to him.
C. The reader learns about each character equally. Mars is a minor character.
D. The reader learns that Aurora is a major character with no speaking parts.
3. How does the author create suspense in the episode?
A. The code red gives the reader the feeling that something bad is about to happen.
B. Aurora's disappearance creates suspense that carries throughout the episode and keeps the reader intrigued.
C. Mars' real name is not Mars and keeps the reader wondering what his real name is.
D. Mars' crush on Aurora keeps the suspense of whether she is avoiding his calls or not.
4. Why does Jonas leave the hiding spot during the code red?
A. Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and left to use the restroom.
B. Jonas believed that the code red was real and he went to check on his sister.
C. Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and he decided to go home.
D. Jonas believed that the code red was real and he ran home because he was scared.
5. How does Mars' interaction with Jonas' mother and the detention teacher contribute to the overall meaning of the podcast?
A. Mars believes the detention teacher knows that Jonas and Aurora are OK.
B. Jonas' mother and the detention teacher are ignoring Mars' concerns about the disappearance of Jonas and Aurora.
C. Jonas' mother and the detention teacher see Mars as a troublemaker that makes up stories about his friends for attention.
D. Mars believes that Jonas and Aurora are not missing, but are ignoring his phone calls and have blocked him on Instagram.

© <https://www.2peasandadog.com>

MARS PATEL SEASON 1: EPISODE 1

Name: _____

Instructions: Circle the letter that best matches the question.

- The title of the podcast is "The Unexplainable Disappearance of Mars Patel." Which statement best expresses the subject of the story?
  - Aurora and Jonas have disappeared and Mars is next.
  - Aurora has disappeared and Mars has a crush on her.
  - Aurora has disappeared, but no one is listening to Mars' about her being missing.
  - Mars is a troublemaker that creates stories about his friends for attention.
- How does Mars develop as a character over the course of the episode?
  - The reader learns little about Mars because he is always in trouble.
  - The reader learns that Mars is a major character that is concerned about the disappearance of his friends and no one is listening to him.
  - The reader learns about each character equally. Mars is a minor character.
  - The reader learns that Aurora is a major character with no speaking parts.
- How does the author create suspense in the episode?
  - The code red gives the reader the feeling that something bad is about to happen.
  - Aurora's disappearance creates suspension that carries throughout the episode and keeps the reader intrigued.
  - Mars' real name is not Mars and keeps the reader wondering what is his real name.
  - Mars' crush on Aurora keeps the suspense of whether she is avoiding his calls or not.
- Why does Jonas leave the hiding spot during the code red?
  - Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and left to use the restroom.
  - Jonas believed that the code red was real and he went to check on his sister.
  - Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and he decided to go home.
  - Jonas believed that the code red was real and he ran home because he was scared.
- How does Mars' interaction with Jonas' mother and the detention teacher contribute to the overall meaning of the podcast?
  - Mars believes the detention teacher knows that Jonas and Aurora are OK.
  - Jonas' mother and the detention teacher are ignoring Mars' concerns about the disappearance of Jonas and Aurora.
  - Jonas' mother and the detention teacher see Mars as a troublemaker that makes up stories about his friends for attention.
  - Mars believes that Jonas and Aurora are not missing, but are ignoring his phone calls and have blocked him on Instagram.

EPISODE 1 ANSWERS

1. The title of the podcast is "The Unexplainable Disappearance of Mars Patel." Which statement best expresses the subject of the story?
  - A. Aurora and Jonas have disappeared and Mars is next.
  - B. Aurora has disappeared and Mars has a crush on her.
  - C. Aurora has disappeared, but no one is listening to Mars' about her being missing.
  - D. Mars is a troublemaker that creates stories about his friends for attention.
2. How does Mars develop as a character over the course of the episode?
  - A. The reader learns little about Mars because he is always in trouble.
  - B. The reader learns that Mars is a major character that is concerned about the disappearance of his friends and no one is listening to him.
  - C. The reader learns about each character equally. Mars is a minor character.
  - D. The reader learns that Aurora is a major character with no speaking parts.
3. How does the author create suspense in the episode?
  - A. The code red gives the reader the feeling that something bad is about to happen.
  - B. Aurora's disappearance creates suspension that carries throughout the episode and keeps the reader intrigued.
  - C. Mars' real name is not Mars and keeps the reader wondering what is his real name.
  - D. Mars' crush on Aurora keeps the suspense of whether she is avoiding his calls or not.
4. Why does Jonas leave the hiding spot during the code red?
  - A. Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and left to use the restroom.
  - B. Jonas believed that the code red was real and he went to check on his sister.
  - C. Jonas believed that the code red was a drill and he decided to go home.
  - D. Jonas believed that the code red was real and he ran home because he was scared.
5. How does Mars' interaction with Jonas' mother and the detention teacher contribute to the overall meaning of the podcast?
  - A. Mars believes the detention teacher knows that Jonas and Aurora are OK.
  - B. Jonas' mother and the detention teacher are ignoring Mars' concerns about the disappearance of Jonas and Aurora.
  - C. Jonas' mother and the detention teacher see Mars as a troublemaker that makes up stories about his friends for attention.
  - D. Mars believes that Jonas and Aurora are not missing, but are ignoring his phone calls and have blocked him on Instagram.

STAY IN TOUCH

Click here to join the email list and you will get this Rant Writing Unit for free.

Rant Writing Unit

Oral Presentation

PDF & Digital Formats

2 Peas and a Dog

Middle School Teaching Resources