5 STAR TEACHER FEEDBACK

“As per usual, 2peasandadog comes to save the day! Students were burned out from the events of this year, and they really enjoyed these end of the year activities. Activities are always well organized, explained, and thought out.” - Anna E.

“This was really helpful in providing my students some engaging activities in those last few days of the year. I also appreciated the different levels of the texts for any ELLs.” - Randy D.

“My grade 7 students were so engaged and LOVED the escape room activity. Great for small groups, but could also be done independently.” - Lana K.

“Great year end activity bundle! Highly worth the price to spend on activities for the end of year with junior/intermediate! Thank you for creating!” - Catherine C.

PUBLIC SWIMMING POOL SAFETY

In order to make sure the water is always okay to swim in, both things need to be checked regularly.

What's In The Water?
When someone gets into the water, everything that's on their body comes into the pool.

Swimwear, perfumes, sweat and dirt all their way into the pool.

There are also less pleasant things that get into the water. People and animals also pee and poop in the pool.
