FAKE NEWS DIGITAL ESCAPE ROOM EDITABLE & DIGITAL

CHALLENGE #4

Read each digital citizenship scenario for each state if it is a positive (P) or negative (N) example of digital citizenship—for example, IP.

Scenario 1
Student A practices respectful and positive communication in online forums, chats, and social media platforms.

Scenario 2
Student B is cautious about sharing personal information online and understands the importance of privacy settings.

Scenario 3
Student C uses AI to complete an assignment without fact-checking the information. The information contains inaccuracies, contributing to the spread of misinformation.

Scenario 4
Student D shares and creates inappropriate content, such as deepfake images or videos, without considering the consequences of sharing disinformation.

EACH DIGITAL ROOM CONTAINS A DIFFERENT STORYLINE

COMMUNITY MEETING

Your school is concerned about the spread of misinformation about fake snow days. They arrange a community meeting to teach the school community about fake news, misinformation and disinformation. You and your friends have been asked to volunteer at the meeting. The principal asks you to get the chairs from the storage room and set them up in the gym. You try to prop the door open.

Unfortunately, the door locks behind you when you are searching for a doorstop. Solve all the challenges to escape the chair storage room.

MOVIE NIGHT

You and your friends have planned a virtual movie night. Everyone lives in different cities so meeting up often is not an option. No one can decide which movie to watch. Some of the people in the group want to watch a scary movie while others want to watch a comedy. You are just happy to be spending time with your friends, even if it's via your cellphone. You are so hungry! You bring your friends downstairs to the kitchen so you can get some snacks. Ugh! All the snacks are in the basement. You tell your friends you will BRB and run downstairs (without your cellphone) to look in the basement pantry for some snacks. You are in such a rush that you forget to jam the pantry room door open with the door stop. When you try to come up from the basement, you see the door is locked closed. Now you are going to miss the movie and will have to wait for your family to come home and find you in the basement.

TEACHER FEEDBACK

“All of 2peasandadog Escape Rooms are excellent! My students love all of the challenges.” (Thanksgiving Digital Escape Room)

“This was such a fun activity! My students thoroughly enjoyed learning more about Canada in a creative and engaging way. It was a task in which all students could participate!” (Canada-Themed Digital Escape Room)

“I think this was my students’ favorite escape room of the year. Everyone loves movies and there were plenty of opportunities for students to help each other, I saw some really excellent collaboration amongst students that rarely interacted. This provided great opportunities for critical thinking AND for letting all of my students excel in different ways. Well done and thank you!” (Movie Night Digital Escape Room)
