LESSON PLAN

Teaching

1. Distribute the lesson plan and creative writing prompts to students.
2. Provide class time for students to work on this task using the writing process: Brainstorming, Rough Drafts, and Good Copy.
3. Explicitly explain the marking scheme (select option A or B) so that students are fully aware of what needs to be included to have a successful assignment.
4. Provide class time for students to work on this task using the writing process: Brainstorming, Rough Drafts, and Good Copy.
5. In order to ensure that students are using the correct format and voice for their chosen roles, conference with students throughout the different stages of the writing process.
6. Provide classroom technology or other resources to support student research for each role.
7. Optional: Collect the assignments on the assigned due date and set up a gallery walk around the classroom or the hallway to display student work. Allow the class to visit each assignment and provide positive feedback using paper or sticky notes for their fellow students.

TEACHER FEEDBACK

“This is [a] great resource and has a lot of opportunities for student choice. I have used this resource with both a grade 8 class, and a grade 6/7 class and both enjoyed this opportunity to participate in a fun and engaging assignment. My students loved that they were also asked to add in images. I also enjoyed that this could be both a digital or written assignment so it appealed to everyone.” – Jennifer R.
