

STIFF Upper Lip

INSTRUCTIONS

Each player picks a moustache and, without looking at it, holds it in place so they themselves cannot see it but the other players can. On each moustache is the name of a famous person and the player becomes that person for the round. There are also blank moustaches for the players to write their own characters and hand it to someone else to see if they can guess which celebrity they have above their lip.

THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO PLAY:

VERSION 1:

One player is the 'victim'. They try to establish who they are by asking questions beginning with 'Am I...?', for example;

'AM I A TV PERSONALITY?', 'AM I MALE?',
'AM I UNDER 30?' etc.

The questions can only be answered 'yes' or 'no' by the other players. If you wish to score, a point is awarded for every question asked. The score is halved if they eventually guess their own identity, but doubled if they do not. The player with the lowest score at the end of the game wins.

VERSION 2:

In this version a player may ask as many questions as he wishes but only have three minutes in which to do so.

A point is given for every ten seconds that pass. The score is halved if they eventually guess their own identity, but doubled if they do not. The player with the lowest score at the end of the game wins.
