Our businesses are quickly expanding to keep up with growing demand. This is where you come in! We're on the hunt for extra helping hands to maintain our prized rental equipment.

About the role:

- Clean and sanitise equipment. This includes bounce castles, ball pit balls, soft play equipment, foam mats, chairs, tables, linen and more
- Inspect equipment for any damage or required maintenance, and keep the defects list up to date
- Organise and tidy Warehouse
- Restock and management of cleaning materials, equipment, and solutions.

- Fun fast-paced work environment
- On-the-job training/up skilling
- Modern recently renovated Warehouse workspace

Smashing Industry Standards

Cutting corners isn't our thing, especially when it comes to our littlest customers! We are industry leaders in ALL areas of our kids party hire business. Hygiene, safety and compliance, systems and customer service, collaborations, and of course - event execution and creativity. If a qualification or certification exists, it's more than likely we'll have it!

OUR TEAM CULTURE SUMMARISED IN MEMES

Me after hitting a curb and driving off like nothing happened:

😂😂😂 SMALL BIZ FEELS

me: i have so many responsibilities
also me:

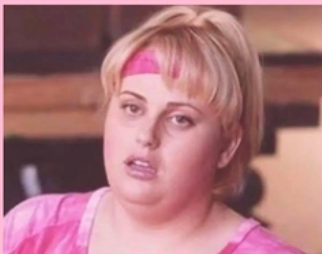

Me right now upset that I'm gonna miss a few days of gym on top of missing the last few years too

one of my worst traits is my core belief that i deserve a little $6 coffee every time i run a mildly unpleasant errand

When your kid keeps telling you a story and it won't end

Moms during December:

"Mom, I need some more toothpaste."
"Alright it'll have to be part of your Christmas tho."

Me when I buy something I didn't need bc I was having a bad day
