Smashing Industry Standards

Cutting corners isn't our thing, especially when it comes to our littlest customers! We are industry leaders in ALL areas of our kids party hire business. Hygiene, safety and compliance, systems and customer service, collaborations, and of course - event execution and creativity. If a qualification or certification exists, it's more than likely we'll have it!

OUR TEAM CULTURE SUMMARISED IN MEMES

Me after hitting a curb and driving off like nothing happened:

😂😂😂 SMALL BIZ FEELS

me: i have so many responsibilities
also me:

Me right now upset that I'm gonna miss a few days of gym on top of missing the last few years too

one of my worst traits is my core belief that i deserve a little $6 coffee every time i run a mildly unpleasant errand

When your kid keeps telling you a story and it won't end

Moms during December:

"Mom, I need some more toothpaste."
"Alright it'll have to be part of your Christmas tho."

Me when I buy something I didn't need bc I was having a bad day
