

COCKTAIL BOMB SHOP

ABOUT US

Hi, I'm Kiana Gomes, the founder of Cocktail Bomb Shop. My entrepreneurial journey began in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, right from the confines of my own kitchen. Pre Covid, I worked in a mall-based soap store that, interestingly enough, also sold bath bombs. When I lost that job, I pivoted to crafting custom cakes—a passion of mine, although not particularly profitable.

The course of my life changed when a friend introduced me to the concept of hot chocolate bombs. Taking a calculated risk, I invested $60 in quality chocolate to try my hand at this trendy creation. Despite initial skepticism, even from my boyfriend, we remarkably sold over 12,000 units in just a few months. However, post-Valentine's Day, that venture began to taper off.

Inspiration struck again, I wanted to try making a “edible bath bomb”. After countless trials and adjustments, I cracked the code. When I posted my creation on TikTok, the response was overwhelming, thus giving birth to Cocktail Bomb Shop.

We've gained notable recognition since our inception, most notably being featured on Dragon's Den—the Canadian equivalent to Shark Tank. Impressively, five dragons offered us a deal, including Robert Herjavec.

Today, Cocktail Bomb Shop proudly offers a portfolio of over 30 unique flavors and other fun cocktail products. To enjoy, simply drop one into sparkling water and optionally add a shot of alcohol. It's an innovative and fun way to elevate your beverage experience.

Thank you for joining me on this exciting journey.

Cheers to creating more sparkling memories together.
