Medical Wigs Capability Statement

Our Mission

To change the status quo on how wigs and hairpieces are seen as a fashion statement as opposed to a "necessity".

We offer personalized hair replacement solutions, collaborate with local dermatologists to address the root cause of hair loss, and provide essential education and support in helping patients regain their confidence and to feel normal again.

A black, woman-owned company, Pique Hair promises to source and supply top-of-line hair pieces and prosthetics in an easily accessible way for those seeking relief from medically-induced hair loss, be it men, women or children.
