Last week, we took a field trip to the zoo. We got on a big school bus. I sat next to Adam. When we got to the zoo, we got into groups. We walked all around. There were so many animals! We saw zebras and lions. We saw penguins and polar bears. Then, we had lunch at picnic tables. After lunch, we saw the seal show. The seals jumped for fish. They did big flips. It was a fun field trip.

Baby Bear loves cookies. But he learned that too many cookies can be bad. Last Tuesday, he and Mama Bear baked cookies. The cookies were for a big party at school. Mama Bear said, "You can have one cookie now. Keep the rest for the party." Baby Bear didn't listen. When Mama Bear went to sleep, Baby Bear ate all of the cookies. Soon, he didn't feel good. He ate too many cookies. The cookies made him sick. He will never eat that many cookies again.

Reading Comprehension Level G (set 3)

Read the passage and answer the questions: ◀⑩

My family adopted a puppy and kitten. We got them at a shelter. They are both so tiny! We need to show them lots of things. We need to show them where to sleep. We need to teach them to go the bathroom outside. They don't have names yet! "What should we name them?" my dad asked. "Spot and Stripes!" I say. Those are good names for our new pets!
