SPELL

Peter was worried about the spelling bee. He had to stand up on stage in front of the whole school. The principal would read words for Peter to spell. Peter didn't like the bright lights of the stage. He didn't like everyone staring at him. The day of the spelling bee came. "Maybe I won't go to school today," Peter thought. But he decided to be brave. He stood on the stage. He tried his best. He didn't win. But that was okay. He was proud that he tried.
