Main Exhibition: Inter Mundos

Megan Klak, Daniel Evans and Marilene Oliver Until January 27

A trio of Edmonton artists explore the complex relationship we maintain with technology. The once-fixed boundary between the physical and the digital realms has become ever more porous. Through painting, printmaking and virtual reality art installations, Megan Klak, Daniel Evans and Marilène Oliver navigate this Inter Mundos – this space between worlds.

ART GALLERY OF ST. ALBERT

Main Exhibition:

Time and Terrain -Connecting to Land and Sky

Samantha Williams-Chapelsky February 1-March 9

With breath, light and colour, St. Albert artist Samantha Williams-Chapelsky embraces landscape. Layers of paint, colour and texture are sculpted to capture the whole sensory experience of the prairies-wind sweeping across the fields, unbelievable ranges of colour and a sky that encompasses the entire soul.

Artist talk/reception: February 22 from 6-8 pm In-person tour: February 14 at noon

Virtual tour: February 27 at noon on Facebook Live

ART GALLERY OF ST. ALBERT

Main Exhibition:

Threading Through Time

Raneece Buddan March 14-April 25

Raneece Buddan strives to reconnect to her ancestors through her work. As a Jamaican woman, she hails from both Afro and Indo-Caribbean roots. Blending textile, ceramics, portraiture and sculpture, she captures beauty and weaves together the connection, traditions and memories that can be lost between generations.

In-person tour: March 27 at noon Virtual tour: April 3 at noon on Facebook Live Artist talk/reception: End of April (date/time TBD)

ART GALLERY OF ST. ALBERT

Staircase Feature: *Liminal Spaces*Jacqueline Huskisson

Until February 3

Jacqueline Huskisson's Liminal Spaces embraces the uncanny, existing in a space of uncertainty in the face of an ever-shifting reality. Adapting the grids and frames found in comic books, she set her sights on the familiar setting of a home. Unceremoniously, she nudges it off its axis, guiding viewers to see their narratives through her characters.

Inseparable Fragments

Santosh Korthiwada February 6-May 4

What does it mean to move around the world, leaving the culture, place, sounds and smells of the land where you grew up? How do you hold onto those intangible memories as they drift further into the past? Through digital collage, Santosh Korthiwada is preserving his memories of India, his country of birth and the place where his heart will always reside in Inseparable Fragments.

In-person tour: February 16 at noon Virtual tour: February 28 at noon on Facebook Live

MUSÉE HÉRITAGE MUSEUM

First Languages

Cree: The People's Language Beyond Words: Dictionaries and Indigenous Languages

(Two exhibitions from the Canadian Language Museum)

Until February 24

First Languages showcases the original oral nature of Indigenous languages and the challenges of transitioning them to written form. Two exhibitions from the Canadian Language Museum are surrounded by interactive stations with opportunities to listen to and try to translate Indigenous languages and identify and learn the meaning of the Indigenous names of some Alberta places, plants and animals.

Speaker Events: The Local Tongue with Dan Cardinal January 20 from 11 am-12 pm February 17 from 11 am-12 pm We welcome Dan Cardinal of the Métis Nation of Alberta to the museum. He will speak about the importance of the Cree language's past, present and future.

MUSÉE HÉRITAGE MUSEUM

The Wild Side

Polar Prairie Pacific Dave Conlin March 4-June 29

Through the work of St. Albert photographer Dave Conlin, take a walk through the wild side. Explore the majestic and challenging lives of large mammals from the Pacific, through the Prairies and up to the Arctic. In The Wild Side, Conlin captures the bond between a mother grizzly and cub learning to hunt salmon, a deer peeking over canola, a cautious coyote and much more.
