SAPVAC Guild Members

Guided-GOBSMACKED

Art Gallery of St. Albert is seeking SAPVAC Guild members working in their guild medium to participate in the exhibition Guided-GOBSMACKED. This juried exhibit will take place from November 22, 2024, to January 25, 2025.

All five Guilds: Floral Art, Painters, Paper Arts, Potters and Quilters' are welcome to participate, exhibiting works inspired by the theme "GOBSMACKED." Artists interpret the theme individually, informed by their own experiences, interests and unique artistic practices. There are many potential avenues of exploration and expression, from the literal to the metaphorical.

Artists are encouraged to submit up to five individual pieces. In addition, groups within each guild are also encouraged to create and submit a collaborative piece related to the theme. This collaboration could take the form of a large installation work with various members working together to create one piece, or it could come from a series of small individual works designed to fit together and become larger works. Group projects will be displayed together in the exhibition.

To express your interest in participating, please complete the attached application form. For individual works, you may submit up to five digital images. For collaborative pieces, only one expression of interest form is needed, with a single member from the group serving as the primary contact person. All submissions, whether individual or group, must be received by September 20, 2024, to be considered for this exhibition.

Email or mail/ drop off (email preferred) off your submission package to:
