Seasonal Historical Interpreter - Grain Elevators Interpréte historique sasissonnier - silo à grains

Term: April 29, 2024, to September 2, 2024 (16 weeks Young Canada Works funded, two weeks non-grant funded)

Job Type: Seasonal, full time (35 hours weekly)

Location: St. Albert's Historic River Lots + Grain Elevators, 4 Meadowview Drive, St. Albert, AB

Workdays: Wednesday to Sunday and Holiday-Mondays. Weekend work is required as well as occasional evenings.

Wage: $18.29 per hour

St. Albert's Historic River Lots and Grain Elevators heritage site is home to four historic buildings connected to St. Albert's Métis and Francophone histories, two provincially designated grain elevators, and a replica train station.

The Seasonal Historic Interpreter will be able to share the rich history of St. Albert's agricultural, fur trade, Métis, and Francophone communities at this location by assisting with educational and community programming, tours, and special events.

The Seasonal Historic Interpreter - Grain Elevators position will focus on the interpretation and visitor experience at the Grain Elevator heritage site, which interprets St. Albert's agricultural and transportation history.

Working under the guidance of the Heritage Site Manager and Program Coordinator the Seasonal Historic Interpreter will:

- · Work as part of the interpretive team
- · Lead pre-booked school, daycare and day camp programs
- · Plan special events and drop-in activities
- Support pre-registered courses
- · Provide informative and engaging tours of the heritage buildings and historic site

You can find further details about our sites at artsandheritage.ca.

Ideal candidates will have the following:

- · Background in history, museum studies, agriculture, education, Indigenous studies, anthropology or performing arts
- Excellent communication skills
- · Working knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, Dropbox and social media
- Project management work experience is an asset
- Collaborative skills to work in a team environment
- Experience leading programs for children and providing tours for people of all ages
- Experience leading a team or project
- French, Michif or any other Indigenous language is an asset
- Current First Aid Certificate

Young Canada Works grant funding sponsors this position. Candidates should review the eligibility criteria before applying and be registered with the Young Canada Works online inventory. For information go to Young Canada Works.

Our organization is an equal-opportunity employer, and all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply for this position.

All applicants must prepare to obtain security checks, including a Vulnerable Sector Police Information Check.

The application deadline is 11 pm MST on Monday, March 25, 2024.

How to Apply

You can online at artsandheritage.ca. Only applications submitted through our website will be accepted. Please direct any inquiries to Aimee Lauzon, Operations and Digital Media Specialist, at aimeel@artsandheritage.ca.

We respectfully acknowledge that we are on Treaty 6 territory, traditional lands of First Nations and Métis peoples. As treaty People, Indigenous and non-Indigenous, we share the responsibility for stewardship of this beautiful land.

