

Seasonal Historic Interpreter – St. Albert's Historic River Lots + Grain Elevators

Job Type: Seasonal, full time (35 hours weekly)

Location: St. Albert's Historic River Lots + Grain Elevators, 4 Meadowview Drive, St. Albert, AB

Workdays: 5 days a week. The work schedule requires weekend work, holiday Mondays and occasional evenings.

Wage: $18.29 per hour

St. Albert's Historic River Lots + Grain Elevators is home to four historic buildings connected to St. Albert's Métis and Francophone histories, two provincially designated grain elevators and a replica train station. Our interpreters will be able to share the rich history of St. Albert's agricultural, fur trade, Métis and Francophone communities at this location by assisting with educational and community programming, tours, and special events.

Further details about our site can be found at www.artsandheritage.ca/.

Seasonal Historic Interpreters work as part of the interpretive team, leading pre-booked school, daycare, and day camp programs, planning special events and drop-in activities, supporting pre-registered courses, and providing informative, engaging tours of heritage buildings and historic sites.

Ideal candidates will have:

- Background or interest in history, museum studies, education, Indigenous studies, theatre or anthropology.
- Excellent communication skills
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel and Dropbox and social media platforms such as Facebook and Instagram
- Collaborative skills to work in a team environment
- Experience interacting with children
- Current First Aid Certificate

These positions are funded through the Rupertsland Institute. Candidates must meet the following criteria:

- A citizen of the Metis Nation of Alberta.
- Under 30 years old.
- Attending school in the Fall.

All applicants must be prepared to obtain security checks, including a Vulnerable Sector Police Information Check.

Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled.
