CORPORATE GIFTING

MANFLOWERCO

Why Manflower Co and After Hours?

Traditionally, corporate gifts have been just that: traditional.

Until Manflower Co and After Hours came along, corporate gifts were about as fun as a Friday afternoon meeting. They did nothing but cause stress to the person-in-charge, and disappointment to every unlucky recipient — and don't get us started on the waste.

Our corporate gifting programs were designed to do the exact opposite: to offer an easy, foolproof process for the organiser, to surprise and celebrate clients and staff who deserve more than a cheap branded mug, and to provide premium gifts and sustainable packaging that don't end up in the bin.

IT'S BETTER GIFTING FOR ALL PARTIES:

- Gifts for every person, reason or budget
- Thoughtful men and women's gifting specialists
- Over 1000 positive customer reviews
- Consciously gift-wrapped
- Custom or branded wrap available
- Same day delivery (Melbourne) or next day delivery (Australia-wide)
- Easy ordering with one form across both brands

Reward, thank, celebrate and incentivise with thoughtful gifts they'll actually love.

Your Packaging Options

We make it easier to wrap up your to-do list.

We know your staff and clients appreciate not just an epic gift, but an experience. That's why they won't find their desks adorned with wicker baskets, or their gifts wrapped in cheap cellophane.

A Gathering — Less than 50 gifts:

We'll prepare your gifts in our Manflower Co and After Hours packaging, starring a premium gift box, message card and guaranteed gasp from every giftee.

A Party — More than 50 gifts:

You'll be eligible for branded packaging, with three designs to choose from, plus add your company logo and a message for a modern, non-cheesy celebration.
