Protein cookies and pancakes

A great alternative for those who prefer thefamiliar cookie form but seek high functionalityand benefits from their dessert. These cookies aremade with whey protein concentrate andenriched with fiber, promoting healthy digestion.

Contains no sugar - only safe sweeteners. The dough includes vitamin-rich coconut oil, and depending on the product line, collagen is also added.

In products designed for vegans, whey protein issubstituted with pea and pumpkin protein. Thisnot only enriches the diet but also eliminateslactose.
