The new Budleigh Bed in Zinc Textiles Bingley Bone

Topsham in Devon, where the old Tremlett boatyard is located

Our Story.

Every great idea starts with a moment of inspiration. Ours, rather unusually, came on the high seas, some twenty years ago. Both keen sailors, we struggled to understand why mattresses on boats were so uncomfortable. So, on the banks of the River Exe, we began handmaking natural fibre mattresses that were breathable, fabulously comfortable, and fitted neatly into a boat's awkward spaces. Another lightbulb moment came after the birth of Mark's first child. If we could make eco-friendly mattresses for boats, why not babies, too? After all, they didn't deserve to be sleeping on the harmful toxins found in synthetic materials. With this in mind, we started crafting mattresses for babies with the same pure, properly certified organic materials. We soon discovered that parents were delighted with our eco-conscious approach and, understandably, wanted the same for themselves. And with that, Naturalmat was born.

MARK TREMLETT | PETER TINDALL

We are proud to be the first B Corp certified bed and mattress company in the UK.

Pioneering sustainability since 1999.

Our sustainability story isn't an afterthought, it's who we have been since day one.

From pioneering sourcing organic wool directly from local farmers, to being powered by 100% renewable energy for over a decade and developing innovative plastic-free packaging. We've come a long way in growing as a force for good and we're not stopping now.

Our Sustainability Strategy

1 Closing the loop.

We need to move to a mattress industry without waste. From the materials we choose to our upcycling and recycling services, we're stopping at nothing to close the loop.

2 Sustainable & regenerative sourcing.

We'll be exploring regenerative farming principles, using more recycled materials and continuing to uphold human rights and high animal welfare in our supply chain.

3 Healthy sleep for all.

By forming impactful charity partnerships to tackle bed poverty and sharing sleep advice with the world, we'll help make healthy sleep accessible to all.

4 Climate emergency.

We face a climate and ecological emergency that requires urgent action. We're playing our part to cut emissions and protect and regenerate our planet's precious ecosystems.

5 Supporting our Devon community.

We want Naturalmat to be one of the best places to work in the UK and support our local community in any way we can.

2025 Goal

Create a fully closed loop mattress service

Set up or support at least 3 regenerative projects with our suppliers

Dedicate 5% of our production capacity to tackling bed poverty

Absolute zero scope 1 and 2 emissions (net zero Scope 3 by 2030)

Gain a recognised award or certification for being a brilliant employer, such as the UK's 100 Best Companies to Work For Our Materials.

Organic Wool

Naturally fire retardant and an exceptional temperature regulator, we buy all of our wool directly from local, organic certified farms within 70 miles of our Topsham HQ. So we can more or less pinpoint the exact field the wool you are sleeping on has come from.

Natural Latex

Our OEKO-TEX® certified latex is a breathable, healthy alternative to widely used synthetic foams. It's made from a blend of natural latex, which is soft, springy and inherently hypoallergenic, ensuring safe and long lasting support for your mattress.

Cotton Wool Covers

Our herringbone ticking is chemical-free and made with a blend of cotton and wool which passes stringent British FR standards. We even treat it with an OEKO-TEX® certified plant-based geraniol, to guarantee protection from mites, moths and bed bugs.

Organic Coir

The core of our natural fibre mattresses, coir is derived from coconut husks. We are one of the only bed companies to use this endlessly renewable, sustainable fibre, and we source it directly from one of the few certified organic coconut plantations in the world.

Cashmere

Cashmere comes from the underfleece of the Kashmir goat and is one of the most highly prized fibres in the world. It's three times finer, softer and warmer than wool, and it absorbs and releases moisture with changes in humidity, making it an exceptional hypoallergenic insulator.

Recycled Denim

Instead of going into landfill, denim and cotton offcuts from the clothing industry are given a second lease of life. The offcuts are shredded, blended into a fabric mix and matted into cushiony, hard-wearing pads - perfect as a soft layer in our entry level mattresses and toppers.

Our Mattresses.

We make two types of mattress – Natural Fibre & Pocket Sprung. Both are filled with layers of natural, organic fibres, and Pocket Sprung mattresses contain a core of springs. Natural Fibre mattresses have a firmer, denser feel, whilst Pocket Sprung mattresses are bouncier and available in soft, medium or firm.

Our Mattress for Life Initiative™

When your Naturalmat mattress reaches the end of its lifespan around 10 years from now you'll have 3 options:

1. Refurbish

your mattress is re-filled and re-covered to make it as good as new for considerably less than the price of a new one

You receive a completely refreshed mattress that's better for the planet and will last you for years to come

2. Recycle

the materials & fillings recovered from your mattress will be washed and treated to prepare them for reuse

You receive

either store credit or a new product made from the recovered materials such as scatter cushions or even a dog bed

3. Donate

we will send your mattress to be washed and cleaned by one of our partners and it will then be donated to charity, helping to alleviate bed poverty

You help

someone in need get a good night's sleep on a freshly cleaned mattress

Vanstone.

The 18th century detail of deep tufting on furniture always turns an ordinary shape into an opulent one. The Vanstone can look regal in a velvet, as well as laid back and inviting in a washed linen.

The Prideaux Bed (in one piece) in Chelsea Washed Linen, Mustard

Prideaux.

A skinny, pillowy pleated headboard with a low, thin base. The visually light silhouette of the Prideaux looks best in linen or lightweight fabrics, and is the epitome of casual chic.

The Torrington bed in oak (in one piece)

Torrington.

With a Scandi appeal and mid-century feel - the Torrington feels right at home in ultramodern spaces as much as it does engulfed in wrinkly linen duvets in an idyllic home. Available in oak, ash, beech or walnut.

Devon Oak.

Grown, matured & handcrafted in our home county of Devon. We start with beautiful oak from managed woodland on the banks of the River Tamar. This timber is then expertly crafted by a local master joiner to create a jaw dropping piece that so precisely fits our "made by hand in Devon" ethos.

The Another Bed in Miro Herringbone, Carbon

Another Bed.

Celebrating our longstanding relationship with the sustainable furniture brand, Another Country, this bed is all about the meeting of two materials, soft and hard, woodwork and upholstery. The headboard is double-sided and can be attached with either the oak side or the fabric side facing forward, or enjoy both and change it over along with the seasons!
