

FENTO • BICO DA RAN

TYPE
WHITE RIÁS BAIXAS
LOCATION
VALLE DEL SALNÉS, GALICIA, SPAIN

VINEYARD

Grape Varieties: 100% Albariño
Vines Age: 15 to 25 years
Elevation: 165 to 490 ft
Soil: Alluvial and rocky
Climate: Oceanic, Atlantic
Harvest: By hand

WINEMAKING

Winemaker: Eulogio Pomares and Rebeca Montero
Fermentation: In temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks
Maturation: Stainless steel

WINE

Alcohol: 12.5 %
Production: 6,000 to 8,000 cases

PITCH

- Organic viticulture
- Small production
- Made by one of Spain's top wineries, Zárata
- Indigenous grape variety
- Great with seafood: fish, shellfish, oysters, and with most appetizers
- Superb value and attractive package with an informative back label

TASTE

Aromatic with citrus and a delicate herbaceousness. On the palate it is refreshing and crisp, with layers of crunchy orchard fruit. Granny Smith apple, citrus, minerality, with a hint of salinity, dense and crisp.

THINK

Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Grigio, white Bordeaux, white Alsace

---

---

---

---