| Vintage                  | 2021: A rare summer, as it was not very hot and it rained almost sporadically throughout the cycle, giving rise to many fungal problems; that in our case we had been careful to protect the vines against diseases, being proactive and constantly monitoring the vines. A very abundant harvest was coming: many clusters had been born and they were (until August 31) very healthy. On August 31 around 8:00 p.m. in 5 minutes of hail, we lost a large part of the harvest. It was necessary to work very hard in the vineyards the following weeks and during the harvest in the winery to make a scrupulous selection of clusters. In this way, to the detriment of quantity, we have managed to produce wines of a similar quality to previous years. The characteristics of the vintage offer wines with a different profile from those immediately before: very Atlantic, fresh wines. With less degree and volume than other years, with good acidity and very aromatic. They have fruit, but they are much more floral, aromatic herbs, in the mouth they have less weight, although the treixadura profile continues to dominate, whose characteristic volume is smaller this year. But there is a very good acidity, clean, which end up in length. |

Tasting notes (Josh Reynolds): Light, bright yellow. Lively, mineral-accented pear, melon and nectarine scents, with a touch of lemon pith adding lift. Spicy and precise on entry, then fleshier in the mid-palate, offering vibrant citrus and orchard fruit flavors braced by juicy acidity. Closes on a nervy mineral note, with excellent focus and a refreshingly bitter edge.
