PITCH

- Very small production. Harvested manually
- Good evolution in bottle for the next 5 to 10 years
- Very elegant and balanced wine
- Superb value for the quality it delivers
- Reminiscent of Château Rayas
- Garnatxa is one of Spain's noble grapes
- Like a tightrope walker, owner Ciscu Martí seeks a balance between fruit, structure, and spice
- In the shadow of iconic mountain Montserrat, just outside Barcelona

TASTE

Has intense ruby color. In the nose, toast with anise, camphor and tobacco. On the back, red fruit with wood, also vanilla, citrus and cacao. Balanced, very elegant with silky tannins

THINK

Grenache, Côtes-du-Rhône, Châteauneuf-du-Pape
