

Utterly Conkers

Scrumptiously stylish greeting cards

WHOLESALE
CATALOGUE

Hello you

I'm Emma and welcome to Utterly Conkers, a independent greeting card company producing scrumptiously stylish and fun watercolour illustrated designs that warm the heart. Being part of those special messages sent to loved ones makes designing greeting cards so meaningful and after a long career in Technology Marketing, I decided to go back to my first love, art, to create beautiful things that bring happiness to others.

With an overactive imagination, I'm continually inspired by my experiences, the beautiful English countryside around me as well as my family: one husband, two girls and a Miniature Dachshund!

Often to be found with a paintbrush or pencil in hand at my kitchen table come studio in Hampshire, I'm continually working on new designs but hopefully you'll love the ones already here...

To minimise our environmental impact, all cards are printed on FSC Certified board sourced in the UK, delivered to you plastic free. All cards and envelopes are recyclable and made in the UK.

If you have any questions or would like to become a stockist, please email me at info@utterlyconkers.com or create an account at utterlyconkers.com to access our online shop.

Canine Chums

This collection was inspired by the characterful dogs Emma meets on walks with her Miniature Dachshund, Nelly. These designs are perfect for all lovers of our furry four-legged friends but the focus on character gives them generic appeal too.

Printed on luxury 350gsm FSC certified diamond white board, 150 x 150mm, accompanied by a luxury gunpowder grey envelope, pre-packaged with a sticker clasp. All cards are blank inside.
