Khoi San E

Simple - Sophisticated - Sustainable

Designed to illuminate its natural beauty, each piece is handcrafted from sustainably sourced materials and tells a unique story about nature and humanity.

Handcrafted Designs

The Infinite Flow and Lone Star limited collections celebrate the beauty of nature's provisions and its balance and harmony. Pure and strong -with no distractions.

From sourcing to packaging, Khoi San E is passionate about celebrating nature – without harming it. All materials are sourced with as little impact as possible.

Each piece is packaged in an authentic mud cloth bag and hand-crafted box. The bag fabric is 100% cotton, hand-made in Mali and sewn and embroidered by hand in South Africa.

The boxes are hand made from eco-friendly materials, lined with locally sourced natural felt and adhere to the highest organic standards.

Khoi San E was founded by Errica Adams-Berger.

“I have a deep-rooted desire to pay homage to my ancestry, the indigenous Khoi and San people of Southern Africa,” shares Errica.

The result? A sustainable jewelry collection that celebrates Errica's deep connection with and respect for the Khoisan people.

THE INFINITE FLOW COLLECTION

'Infinite Flow' is a contemporary re-interpretation of the infinity symbol. With no front or back, there are no boundaries to the beauty and radiance of these exquisite pieces. A rare combination of black diamonds – representing earthiness – and white diamonds – a symbol for the purity of nature – are set in 18 ct. solid rose gold. “This collection is inspired by the Khoisan's infinite knowledge and respect for the limitless circularity of nature and their use of the stars to guide their journeys.”

THE LONE STAR COLLECTION

“Lone Star” draws its magic from the juxtaposition of apparent opposites that create a harmonious entity: sparkle and darkness, the warmth of gold and the cold fire of a diamond. The four pieces of the collection are crafted from yellow or rose gold, diamonds and ceramic coating. They symbolize a state where mind and heart are in complete balance, and neither overshadow the other. Their message is as simple as it is beautiful: “Love is one.”
