

Nikon International Warranty

Binoculars / Sport Optics

Terms & Conditions:

- When you purchase any new Nikon Binoculars or Sport Optics you automatically receive a Nikon International Warranty for the repair or replacement of your Nikon Binoculars or Sport Optics in the event of any manufacturing defects for TEN FULL YEARS from the date of purchase upon the conditions set out below.
- An abbreviated version of this warranty may be contained on the Nikon Warranty Card that was supplied with the equipment. The actual terms of the warranty are as set out in this document.
- This warranty is not transferrable. The warranty period begins on the date you purchased the Nikon Binoculars or Sport Optics, as indicated on the purchase receipt or by any other evidence. Repair or replacement of the equipment does not restart the warranty period.
- Nikon reserves the right to elect whether to repair or replace the Binoculars or Sport Optics under this warranty.
- All warranty repairs or adjustments must be made by a Nikon Service Facility.
- A claim under this warranty may only be made:
 - if the equipment was purchased from an authorised Nikon dealer,
 - upon presentation of the completed Nikon Worldwide Service Warranty Card (Copy 'C', customer's portion), and
 - upon presentation of proof of purchase. Proof of purchase may include the purchase receipt or any other evidence of purchase.
- This warranty does not cover:
 - cleaning and maintenance of the equipment;
 - damage to or failure of equipment due to normal use or fair wear and tear;
 - damage caused by accident, misuse, do-it-yourself repairs, sand, grit or water,
 - defects or malfunctions caused by damage resulting from improper care, misuse or abuse, or operation of this product contrary to the instructions contained in the owner's manual;
 - damage caused by any modification or servicing performed by person(s) other than Nikon authorised service facilities

Important note: this voluntary warranty is offered by Nikon Corporation Ltd. It is an extra benefit to any other legal rights you may have.
