

DINING TABLE – SAND

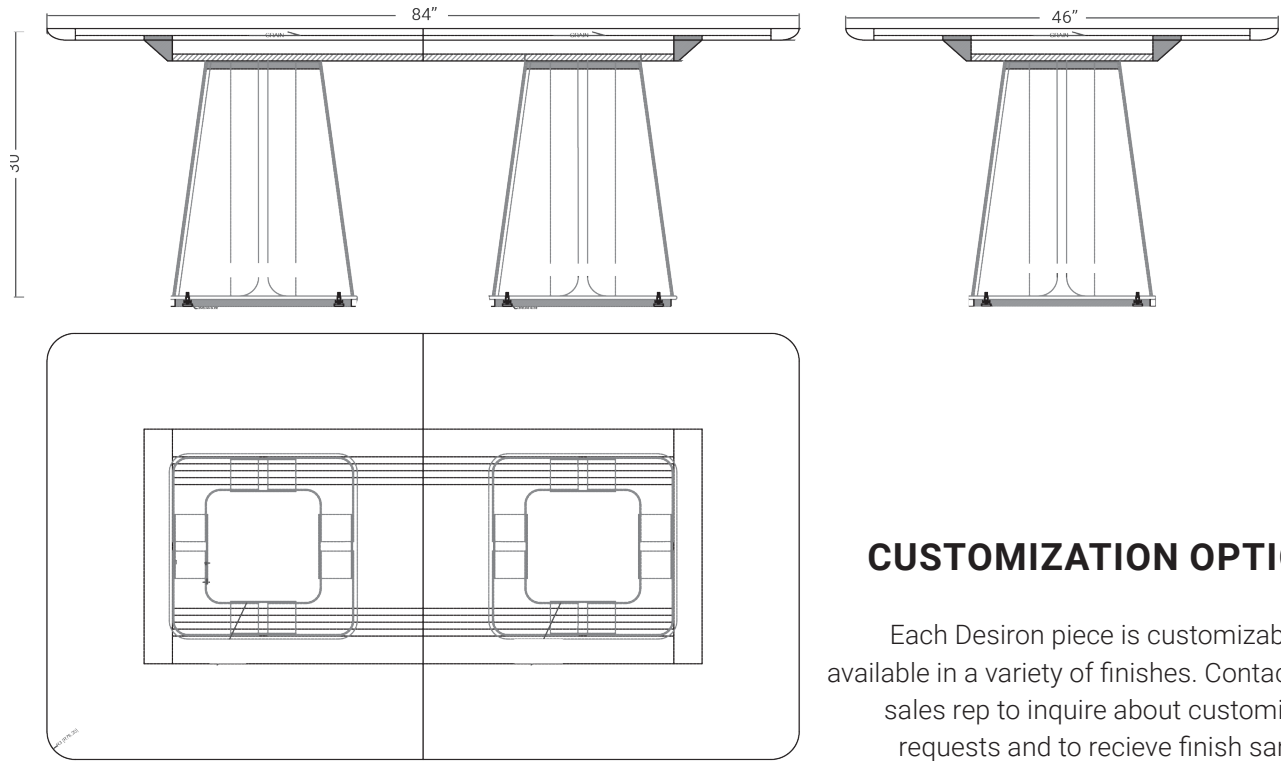

LINHERR HOLLINGSWORTH FOR DESIRON DOUBLE PEDESTAL DINING TABLE

An engineering masterpiece that pushes boundaries of design and use of materials. Crafted from expansive metal sheets, skillfully contoured to form a protective shell embracing a versatile hollow core, this table redefines strength and adaptability. Its slim core, with minimal reveal, opens doors to creative material choices. The tabletop conceals discreet inset pockets on their undersides. These pockets seamlessly house a metal plate, forging an impeccable connection between top and base. In harmonious unison of form and function, this table sets an unmatched standard for design versatility.
