

WORKSHOP / APD FOR DESIRON – CHARCOAL

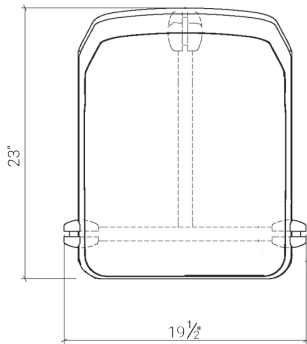

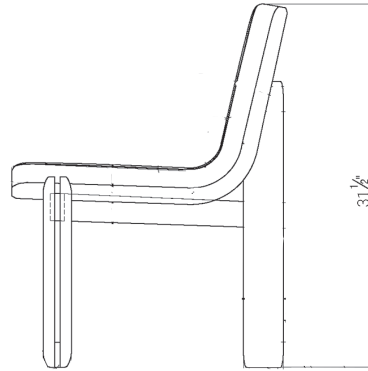

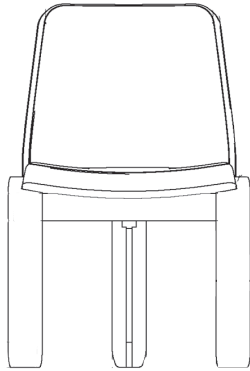

WORKSHOP / APD FOR DESIRON DINING CHAIR

A trio of sculpted wood legs ascend to a seat base that appears to float. While the legs offer crisp reveals of light, airy visual interest, the sculpted base features ergonomically formed upholstery while referencing the collection's reveals with a channel detail. An elegant accompaniment to the Dining Table, the base of the seat's stretchers extend to form the legs' spacers, uniting the two elements seamlessly.
