

History of Public Service

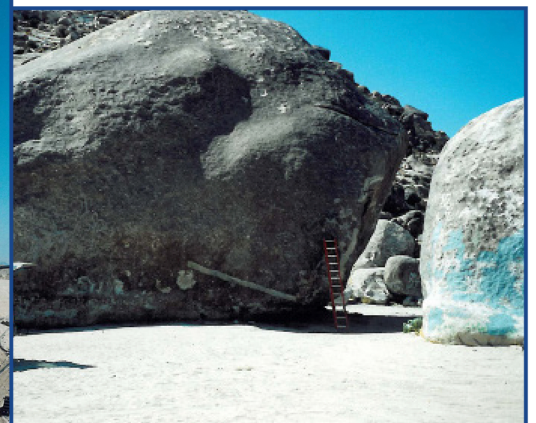

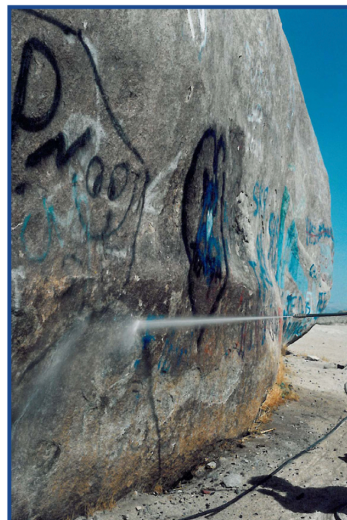

National Volunteer Summit in Philadelphia. Joined by former Presidents Bush and Carter, President Bill Clinton opened a three day summit that included removing graffiti from the city.

Lincoln's Tomb in Springfield, Illinois got national attention with graffiti removal efforts at the base of the bust of Lincoln and the tomb's observation deck, which overlooks the cemetery.

Graffiti removal to restore the historic petro glyphs of the Mojave Narrows in Central California.

Graffiti removal for Giant Rock in San Bernardino County, CA with Former Senator Jerry Lewis of San Bernardino County and Former Supervisor Barbara Cram Riordan of Yucca Valley.

Beautify Chula Vista, CA, the popular neighborhood clean-up event attracted hundreds of dedicated volunteers, while celebrating its 100th birthday. The annual event was hosted by Former Mayor Cheryl Cox and the Chula Vista City Council, in collaboration with I Love a Clean San Diego, Allied Waste Services and the Chula Vista Centennial.

Las Vegas graffiti removal in cooperation with the City of Las Vegas and Las Vegas Parks & Recreation Department.

Bonsai Beach Cleanup III was initiated by a group of Tahoe locals who collaborated with local businesses, state and federal agencies, and media outlets to remove over 50 tags that covered large circular granite boulders adjacent to vibrant turquoise water. Participants including League to Save Lake Tahoe; Nevada State Park; Olab Designers of Lake Tahoe, Nevada; Boreal Mountain Ski Resort (a subsidiary of Powdr Corporation). Boreal Mountain Ski Resort provided funds through a “Protect Your Playground” grant.

Great Atlanta, GA Clean Up for the '96 Summer Olympics with the National Coalition for Delinquency Prevention, Atlanta Board of Education, North Fulton County Keep America Beautiful and Downtown Atlanta Partnership.

Additionally, Molsenbocker's Lift Off Spray Paint & Graffiti Remover earned distinction by receiving the Invention of the Year Award at the 23rd Annual National Inventor's Expo and Conference at Walt Disney's Epcot Center. It is the only water-based, biodegradable paint and graffiti remover on the market. It is safe for the environment, safe for the user, and to any surface to which it is applied.