

ARMSTRONG | FLOOR

This Mid-Century modern Lamp design, Armstrong Floor Lamp is inspired by the great legend of Jazz, Louis Armstrong. A floor piece that replicated Armstrong's greatest perks. This nordic light combines a mid-century design with a structure handmade in brass and a base in white Carrara marble. The oval aluminum lamp shade is softened with a matte white finish. Armstrong arc lamp can reach a height of 59.1 inches with the help of the adjustable balance arm. With a counterweight made in steel, this mid-century lamp directs light anywhere a task light is needed, providing an exquisite touch to your interior design.
