MISSANA

Pepe Albargues, cofounder of Missana

Missana's collection is the result of carrying out a process of research and development in order to produce each item with emotion, passion and affection. Every product reflects the essence of our philosophy: optimism, craftsmanship and colour.

We call our company's philosophy "Made locally". It is known for having a supply chain located in areas less than 60km from our facilities. This is an indication of our intentions, respect and admiration for the local products and for the local artisans.
