2023

Diderot atribuye sensibilidad a toda la materia. Las sensaciones son la fuente del conocimiento humano, y nacen como resultado de la acción de los objetos y fenómenos de la Naturaleza sobre los órganos de los sentidos. El pensamiento es una forma evolucionada de la sensibilidad de la materia.

Diderot attributes sensibility to all matter. Sensations are the source of human knowledge, and are born as a result of the action of objects and phenomena of Nature on the sense organs. Thought is an evolved form of the sensibility of matter.
