

DUKE ROUND | SUSPENSION

Duke is a modern pendant lighting design that boasts a heavy nostalgic 70s groove vibe. Inspired by the simplicity of the 1970s, Delight-FULL's designers were able to create an iconic modern ceiling light that suits the most demanding setting. Produced in Portugal, it is handmade in brass and aluminum. The body, made of brass, has both a matte black and a gold-plated finish, while the shades are lacquered a glossy black on the outside. The inside is matte white, but it can also have a gold powder paint finish. It is a stunning bedroom ceiling light, but this large ceiling light can also be considered for other room settings, such as a mid-century modern living room.
