This alabaster table is the epiphany of engineering. The core of the stone has been emptied to allow for weight management. Being semi-translucent, the stone lit from below creates a beautiful ethereal effect. Additionally, the top has an incorporated mechanism that allows it to rotate 360 degrees.

Esta mesa de alabastro es la epifanía de la ingeniería. El núcleo de la piedra ha sido vaciado para permitir el control de peso. Al ser semi-transparente, la piedra iluminada desde abajo crea un bonito efecto etéreo. Además, la parte superior tiene un mecanismo incorporado que permite que gire 360 grados.
