AUTUMN LEAVES

Make a statement with Harlequin's Leaf cotton bed linen – we love the print's supersized scale and reversible design, which has been modified from last autumn's Momentum wallcoverings range. Simple yet striking, the oversized motif transforms the diminutive details of foliage into a graphic masterpiece. Now you can turn over a new leaf whenever the mood takes you. Double duvet cover, £75; pillowcase, £20; Array Stripe throw, £195; and Array Stripe cushion, £50 (bedeckhome.com)

Las Palmas

We've been fans of trendsetter House Of Hackney since it turned chintz on its head with its deeply cool Dalston Rose collection. Now the Eastender is back with Palmeral, a collection of tropical palm prints – think Downton Abbey meets Abigail's Party (minus the shagpile carpet). Linen cushion, from £55 (houseofhackney.com)

Super sub

For a touch of fun at bath time, Seletti's Submarine bathroom storage in silicone-covered porcelain is a masterclass in multifunctional design. As well as this White one, it comes in Red, Blue and, of course, Yellow. £55 (do-shop.com)

EDITED BY BETHAN RYDER

March is the month for fashionista-friendly bed linen, colour-rocking flooring and glorious reissues

Nice Stack

As modular storage systems go, this is the most playful yet. Stack, by cool Italian brand Seletti, is a range of powder-coated steel units reminiscent of school lockers that can be assembled in various configurations. If all that colour is too much, an all-white version is launching soon. £190-£490 per unit (do-shop.com)

Hollywood classic

It's 'lights, camera, action' in your living room with Marks & Spencer's sleek chrome Hollywood floor lamp. Look out for the fab industrial-style lights in the same collection. Are you ready for your close up?

£99 (marks-and-spencer.com)

WITTY PLANTER

Combining colour and cool structure, this season's planters are bright and fun. The metal Rie come in three sizes, and in yellow, chive green and turquoise. Group all three on your terrace to create a contemporary version of the Jardin Majorelle. Add a few cacti, don a djellaba and lounge. £35-£55 (habitat.co.uk)

Swatch watch

Walls are taking a historical walk in the park, with several wallpaper collections sporting verdant foliage inspired by 19th century French tapestry. Zoffany's lush ode to the sycamore, Richmond Park (far left), is £48 per 10m roll (zoffany.com). Team it with Casamance's zesty-green cotton fabric from the Arizona collection (£29.50 per m, casamance.com) to create an uplifting, modern look.

Above: Eyechart 'You Can Rarely See' framed print, £58 from Heal's; Cauliflower vase by Sena Gu, £80 from Do Shop and Mermaid jug, £16 from Oka; Monochrome mosaic cup and saucer, £10 from Anthropologie

Right: Ofelia throw, £19.99 from Ikea; Autograph faux fur cushion, £35 and White ruffle cushion, £19.50 both from Marks & Spencer; Nomad lamp in white, £39.99 from Rockett St George

Right: Rabbit candle holder, £29 from The Conran Shop; Wild woodland vases, short, £14 and tall, £22 both from Anthropologie; Chess piece, £26 for a set of two from Next; Pip trinket tree in white, £16.95 from Lifestyle Bazaar; tall Ring tree, £46.95 from Pedlars

Left: Knitted Room III framed canvas by Chae Young Kim, £72 per sq m from Surface View; Travel two-drawer unit, £495 from Heal's; Lucina candle, £13 from Skitsch; White butterfly cut-out ceramic vase, £15 from Next; Bird alarm clock, £36 from Aria

BUSINESS CLASS Bordbar trolley with filing inserts, £1,428, Do Shop. Aeroplane sculpture, £195, Andrew Martin. Filing handprinted wallpaper, £169 per drop (56 x 330cm), Deborah Bowness; wooden crate, £25; both Caravan. Linen-covered notebooks, from £9; travel journals, from £7.75; all Paperchase.

A stitch in time

Tapestry is a hot trend. Frédérique Morrel takes vintage pieces of needlework, restores them with love and humour (can you spot Mickey Mouse on the cushion?) and creates must-have accessories. Or have a go yourself with this bowl by Industreal.

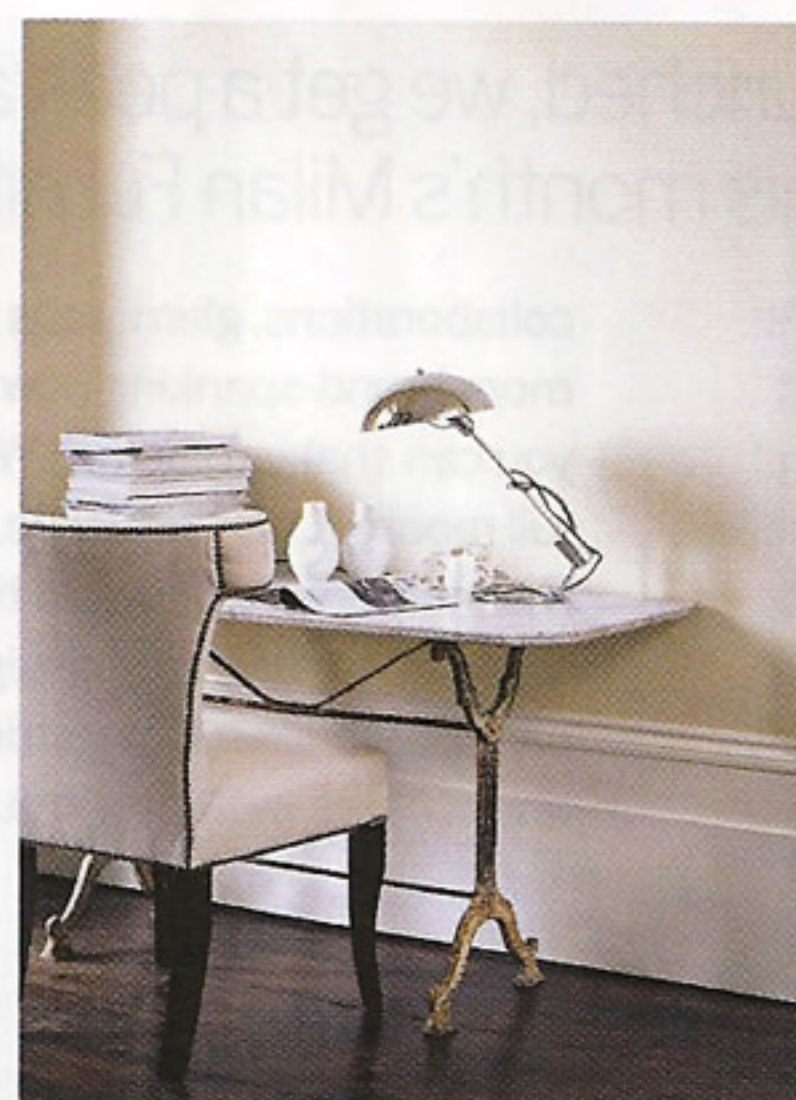

Say it isn't sew:
Footstool, £215;
cushion, £135,
 both Frédérique
 Morrel at Paul
 Smith. Bowl, £85,
 Industreal at Do.

SLIMLINE WINE

If you've got room for a slim broom cupboard in your kitchen, why not turn it into something far more glamorous with Gaggenau's new Vario RW414 wine storage? At only 45.7cm wide it can be squeezed into even the most compact of spaces. From around £3,000.

Show off your wine collection at its best with extendable aluminium and beech trays that can even hold magnums of Champagne.

WALL WHITE

To avoid an all-white decorating scheme looking flat and uninteresting, work with different shades and finishes of white. Crown's Colour Consultant, Judy Smith, advises: 'Layer different tones and textural relief to build up a scheme that has a more modern and intimate feel.' Wall painted in Fine Silk Fashion for Walls Flat Matt Emulsion, £16.99 for 2.5l, and skirting in Pure Brilliant White Non-Drip Satin, £5.99 for 750ml, both Crown.

WHITE HOT... Dior's fragrance Fahrenheit 32, £31, may come in an icy white bottle (32°F is freezing point), but the heady mix of tangerine and leather is sure to raise temperatures.

3 OF THE BEST WHITE TABLES

If food looks better on white plates, why not really wow your guests and serve the whole meal on a white dining table? From the majestic to the modern and minimal, here's Livingetc's pick of the three best...

1 New Antiques dining table, £1,866, Marcel Wanders for Cappellini.

3 M5 table, from £900, by Frank for Established & Sons.

2 Play round table, £449, Calligaris at Rooms of London.

THE WISH LIST

Ensure your season of good will is flavoured with good taste with these don't-miss ideas for getting out and about

Words Katrina Pitts

RAINE SUPREME

South London is celebrating the opening of new lifestyle store Raine in Tooting. With its carefully selected items of furniture, lighting and all-important finishing touches, plus an interior design service, it's the ideal excuse to spruce up your space. Form an orderly queue. 68 Moyser Road, SW16. 020 8677 6772.

DO RIGHT

The West End hosts a fab new interiors shop, too. Do promises smart products, changing themes and a venue that's more stage set than retail outlet. Catch the launch collection now, including Florian Kremb's DoDine001 table. 47 Beak St W1. www.do-shop.com.

SCREEN IDOL

Pull on your beret and get down to the NFT, where Belle de Jour kicks off a season of Luis Buñuel films. Starring Catherine Deneuve, it provoked praise and outrage in 1967. 40 years on, it still packs a punch. From 29 December. National Film Theatre. SEL. www.bfi.org.uk.

CHRISTMAS AT KEW

Take a break from shopping and remind yourself of what the season is really about. For two nights, Kew will be lit up like the proverbial Christmas tree, so take a stroll, sip a mulled wine and join in the carol service. 15-16 December. www.rbgkew.org.uk.

WORTH THE WAIT

Poliform's King's Road showroom has reopened, and, if you're a fan of its unmistakable brand of polished interiors, all your Christmases have come at once (seasonal pun intended). Get down there and give in to the lure of sexy living. 278 King's Road, SW3. 020 7368 7600.
