meet the artist

I'm Claire Desjardins (she/her).
It's really nice to meet you.

I help to create happiness by infusing moments of joy in everyday lives.

dear corporate friends,

Color holds power. Are you seeing red? Going green?
Feeling blue? Pretty in pink?

Powerful, colorful artwork can bring your business to life –
for your employees and for your customers.

Consider WHERE employees work and customers visit.
A beautifully designed office environment can foster creativity, collaboration and inspiring views. Colors, shapes and textures can breathe life into a space and bring calm to the chaos.

Consider HOW we work. An engaging work experience includes creative corporate events and fundraisers that bring people together for the common good.

Consider WHY we work. Rewards are important.
Beyond a paycheck, employees want to feel appreciated – customers too! Recognition done right can result in better performance and positive business results.

The pages that follow showcase how to build inspired workspaces, engage your employees and customers with creativity and reward them with color.

build

inspired spaces

Bring lightness and joy to a space, by creating inspiring work environments.

Transform that dreary office space with color and light. Walls of color can stimulate the brain, and release those creative juices.

I work with companies and their curatorial teams to create spaces that speak to their corporate culture.

engage

with creativity

I love to paint in front of a crowd! In-person, creative theatre brings an interactive spark to any corporate gathering and steps up employee engagement.

A painting event can happen in addition to other activities. It's terrific for fundraisers, team building events, corporate retreats and workshops.

reward

with color

Take your corporate promotional items to the next level with custom premiums your employees will treasure for years to come.

Show your appreciation for employees and customers with practical, beautiful corporate gifts. They'll appreciate the unique and inspired designs on everything from furniture and housewares to footwear and tech devices.

Check out my extensive collection of colorful women's apparel and sportswear - and say goodbye to boring company tee-shirts.

The background is an abstract composition of wavy, horizontal bands of color. The top band is a deep purple, followed by a darker, almost black band. Below that is a vibrant orange band, and the bottom-most band is a bright, saturated red. The colors transition smoothly between bands, creating a sense of depth and movement.
