

HEADPHONES

INTRO: From their origin as a premier headphone for classrooms, TWT Audio has evolved into an exceptional value product line for the entire spectrum of users. All products are developed with four design principles that ensure all users have an optimal listening experience. With the integral technological guidance from Emmy award-winning audio engineer Mark Howlett, TWT Audio has developed high quality, value-driven headphones and headsets that not only provide superior user experience, but also withstand the rigors of daily use by not only students, but adults and professionals of all ages. Since its inception in 2014, TWT Audio has grown from a family-run business to one of the top selling brands in its category, continually innovating to meet the ever-changing needs of the audio landscape.
