

hey gorgeous!

We're so glad you've downloaded this Inspiration PDF. We're here to demystify how to craft the perfect wording for your Favour Signs, and give you some great options on how to let your guests know that those pretty little presents are for them to take home as a keepsake of your big day.

We've covered a range of styles and tones, from formal to casual and a few in-between, to give you a head start. And if you need a bit of advice or have any questions about anything wording-related for your stationery, don't hesitate to get in touch - just sing out with an email or call. We're always happy to chat!

the basics

PUTTING THE 'BOMB' IN BOMBONNIERE!

No matter what you call them - favours, bombonniere, bonbonniere, boubonniere, bomboniera, swag bags, mementos, keepsakes - you can have a lot of fun with the staging and signage for the little gifts you give your guests.

♥ Don't be afraid to tie the wording to the gift.

Giving something sweet to your guests? We've seen great, punny lines such as Mint to Be (from a couple gifting hand-made blends of Moroccan Mint Tea), through This Is Your Jam! (for a couple who made the BEST plum jam as a gift) right through to the classic Love Is Sweet.

You can have so much fun with your favour sign wording - you don't have to be serious at all.

♥ Got a few options for them to pick from? Let them know!

If you've got a few different types of favours, don't forget to list them on the sign along with the standard "please take one" - it's always wise to put a limit, you don't want to encourage guests to walk out with half the offerings, leaving everyone else without a favour!

♥ Not having a favour table? No worries!

If you're popping your favours at each guest's table spot, talk to us about a custom tag or sticker instead of worrying about a sign. We can create beautiful things, and you'd be surprised about how much we can fit in a small space and still make it look perfect.

Now on to the inspiration!
