WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO

At Searsons, we are a family working in wine.

A family not only in the true, ancestral sense but also in a more holistic sense. Our team, our partners in the vineyard and you, our customers, the ‘vino cru’ are all integral to the Searsons’ family. The Tindal family have owned Searsons since 2014 with Harriet Tindal, one of just 416 Masters of Wine in the world, actively working behind the scenes to help Searsons’ bring understanding and excellence into your glasses.

We source our wines directly from the vineyard, forming long-term relationships with producers all over the world. Sustainability is central to our ethos. We drive our business forward on foundations of knowledge, understanding and the constant pursuit of ‘wine nirvana’.
