A farmer's market for wine

Founded by two female sommeliers who were tired of an overwhelming wine aisle with an underwhelming selection.

Guildford Green cuts through the clutter with a curated selection of small-batch, natural wines, presented in beautiful packaging.

Each season, we present new wines and their exceptional stories in a unique way.

A thoughtful experience

Whether you're gifting to one or many, every package is handled with care.

Each bottle is beautifully packed with tasting notes and pairings.

Customizable notecard with options for a logo and personal message.

Fast turnaround and flexible ship dates.
