

LUNUGANGA BENTOTA

Lunuganga was once the country home of the world renowned Sri Lankan architect, Geoffrey Bawa. Recognised for his unique ability to blend distinct buildings with their natural surroundings, Lunuganga was transformed into one of the most seductive, passionate pleasure gardens of the twentieth century and includes 10 bedrooms furnished delicately with antiques and art.

Location

Geoffrey Bawa spent 40 years transforming this once abandoned rubber estate - a few miles inland from the island's west coast beaches - into a tropical idyll, with elegant gardens, courtyards, lily ponds, walkways, romantic pavilions and inspirational views over Dedduwa lake and the surrounding jungle. Lunuganga is situated in Bentota and is midway between Colombo and Galle, and about 1.5 hours' drive from both as well as the international airport.
