4. Course Detail – Outcomes & Expectations

From the training we deliver to you, the Learner, we expect that you will leave confident that you can handle any boating situation that may come your way, within the limitations of the vessel you are in charge of and be competent in all standards for your Licence.

Our ongoing objective is to impress upon you, the Learner, that boating safety is ongoing, and by obtaining a Boat Licence, this is only step one. We encourage all Learners to refresh.

Our objective is to encourage the boating public to foster a culture of safety on your boat amongst your family & friends.

Keeping variety in delivery training sessions is our objective which will encourage you to participate in the subject matter.

Our delivery methods include:

- Oral Presentations / Discussion
- ONLINE Learning
- Simulation Activities
- Group Activities
- Practical Demonstrations & Participation
- Written Questionnaire
- Powerpoint Presentation
- DVD Presentation

ABSLC will conduct BoatSafe Training & Assessment in accordance with BoatSafe Competency Standards; Company Procedures Manual, and Approved Company Training Program.

At completion of the course, Students will be able to demonstrate competency in:

- planning and preparing for a safe boating trip, including undertaking simple maintenance & assessment of weather conditions;
- safely handle / operate a powered recreational vessel, including basic navigation and anchoring;
- dealing with boating emergencies and incidents including the use of safety equipment & raising alarm

5. Refund Policy

ABSLC Cancels A Course

If ABSLC cancels a course for any reason, you have the option of a complete refund of all fees paid in advance without any administration fees imposed, or the choice of transferring to the next available course.

You Withdraw before Course Commences

If you withdraw from a course outside of 36 hours of the course commencement, you have the option of transferring to the next available course or a refund in full of fees paid in advance. If you withdraw from a course within 36 hours of the course commencement no refund applies.

Withdrawal once a Course Commences

No refund applies if you withdraw from the course once it commences. You will receive recognition for any units completed satisfactorily and may request to transfer your uncompleted units to another training date at the same location.

Withdrawal due to Hardship or Illness

If you are required to withdraw from a course due to illness or personal hardship, ABSLC may, at its discretion, provide a refund as long as you can provide a medical certificate. You can request to transfer your prepaid fees to another course date. If a refund is provided, a 50% cancellation fee will apply and no recognition of units completed will be issued.

Course Extension Policy

ABSLC believes in supporting all students in attaining the course qualifications or licence they are studying for, however ABSLC is not obligated to offer a course extension or additional training and assessment to any student who does not complete their course in the allocated time. ABSLC will offer any student who requires additional training or assessment the opportunity, but a fee may apply.

6. Course Credits and Recognition of Prior Learning

You may qualify to have your current skills and/or qualifications recognised via one of the systems outlined below:

Credit Transfer

Credit can be obtained for study already completed. Credit transfer involves assessing previously completed courses or study that is equivalent to the study you are now undertaking. You will need to be able to provide documentation such as a Statement of Attainment for a unit that has equivalent outcomes to the unit(s) in the course you are undertaking. Please contact ABSLC to arrange information on application process.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of prior learning recognises a student's skills and experience gained through formal and informal training, the workplace and general life. RPL process is different for each student, if you believe your marine workplace activities or training in other forms of boating may contribute to some or all of the course units, please contact ABSLC Administration for an RPL Information Pack.

7. Access and Equity

ABSLC encourages and supports people of all abilities to participate in training programs.

Anti-Discrimination

ABSLC does not tolerate nor does it condone any form of unlawful discrimination or harassment by ABSLC staff of any student, employee or prospective employee based on their age, gender, nationality, sexuality, disability, pregnancy, religious beliefs, or ethnic background. If you believe you have been the subject of discrimination or harassment please contact ABSLC Administration immediately.

Access for people with Disability

Students with a disability are encouraged to participate in ABSLC courses. Parts of ABSLC courses can be adapted to suit the needs of students with various disabilities. Some courses require a specific level of mobility and the ability to meet the minimum licence requirements. If you have any accessibility or physical learning needs, please contact ABSLC prior to the commencement of the course and complete the "State Medical Condition / Impairment section of ABSLC's "Application Form."

Numeracy and Literacy

ABSLC is committed to assisting students with differing numeracy and literacy skills. Many courses may require a high level of numeracy and literacy to complete the course. If you have any concerns, ABSLC can provide assistance by referring you to professional services who offer training in these skills.

8. Appeals Policy

ABSLC seeks to minimise appeals by ensuring that students are satisfied with their training product and its outcomes. Personnel are expected to be fair, courteous and helpful at all times. If you have any concerns about your assessment, RPL or results you should discuss these with your Trainer/Assessor, and if not satisfied contact the ABSLC Administration.

ABSLC Appeals Policy states:

- Students have the ability to submit or undertake any assessment task two (2) times
- Students should discuss any concerns about their results with their trainer before contacting ABSLC Administration
- If a student is not satisfied with the outcome after consulting their Trainer, they have 21 days from the date of the result being awarded to submit a written appeal to ABSLC
- If a student is unsatisfied with the result of the formal appeal, they can request the matter be referred to the ABSLC Appeals Panel
- ABSLC Appeals Panel comprises one or more independent persons appointed by the Directors of ABSLC, who are experienced in the course field and the assessment process
- Decisions of the ABSLC Appeals Panel is final
- Any expenses related to the appeal process will be borne by the student unless the Appeals Panel finds in favour of the Student.

You can request an Appeal Application Form from ABSLC Administration.
