

SMIKEE'S GANG

V1: Dead and proud of it

V2: The Vampire's Return

V3: The Escape of the Zombie Dog

V4: The Prince of Darknes

Freg, with the collaboration of Makina

Irresistible screwball characters to make young people want to read!

54 pages each

Petit Homme

It's not easy being a terrifying ghost who doesn't scare anybody, a vampire who can't stand blood, an eye that can't see, or a monster with a bulging forehead who is completely clueless! Even though the members of Smikee's gang are all dysfunctional in their own ways, they are unswervingly loyal to each other, and they all try as best they can to come to terms with their identity.

The horrifying Smikee is scared to death of cats, Ramone is hopelessly in love with a heartless woman, Trolina is a shameless manipulator who has set her sights on Dracula, Gégé is a total caffeine junkie and Guzume is just a multi-phobic eye socket...

Armed with ingenuity and bad ideas, these scatterbrained, one-of-a-kind, endearing little monsters run into situations every day that just keep getting crazier and crazier and will make both children and adults laugh!

Frédéric Goyette (Freg) is a graphic artist and a keen comic strip collector. Katherine Goyette (Makina) teaches in disadvantaged areas and is interested in helping children develop a love of reading.

Strong points

- A vibrant array of colours and endearing characters.
- Short stories (one per page), perfect for new readers.
- Off-the-wall funny characters, living in a world respectful of differences and non-violence.
- For children aged 7 and older.

