

Living at Home
Each day... Everyday

25 000 copies sold in French

Rights sold to: Romania

296 pages - Publication: 2003

This book is a collection of vignettes about family life and elationships. Who has never fallen in love, experienced heartbreak or self-doubt ? How do we go about talking and listening to our children? That's what the author discusses in these thoughtful pages.

Living with Yourself
Each day... Everyday

35 000 copies sold in French

Rights sold to: Greece, Romania.

256 pages - Publication: 2003

Living alone can often be tough, but it is stimulating at the same time. You alone have to find answers to myriad issues that eventually need to be confronted. This book is a practical guide that will teach you how to live with yourself and, in the process, discover the best in others around you.

Living with Others
Each day... Everyday

40 000 copies sold in French

Rights sold to: Portugal, Romania

256 pages - Publication: 2003

Men, women and children cohabit, laugh, love, fight one another, and even resort to violence when things get tough. Jacques Salomé describes and reflects on slices of life in today's society, celebrating the humanity and potential that is inherent in all of us.