

Workshop Schedule

Please note: All times are posted in Pacific Time zone (PT) and are subject to change. A complete, detailed schedule that is workshop- specific will be sent to you prior to the workshop.

Informational Zoom Session: 4-6pm (PT) on the evening prior to workshop.

This session is not mandatory if you have attended any previous workshop with us. However, we highly encourage you to join us.

Items addressed-

- How to navigate Zoom
- Answer last minute questions
- Meet the Makers!
- Demo Darling !

Workshop Hours:

Breaks: We schedule breaks and try to stick to that schedule as much as possible, however please know that the times might need to be adjusted a few minutes in either direction to accommodate the sewing in progress.

1st break: 10:30- 10:45am PT (15 mins)

2nd break: 11:45am - 12:30pm PT (45 mins)

3rd break: 2:00 – 2:15pm PT (15 mins)

Final break: 3:15- 4pm PT (45 mins) –

3:15pm PT is actually the end of class, however we do come back for some downtime with each other. Some know this as Happy Hour, but we prefer to call this time “Wine and Wisdom” (or Whine and Wisdom depending on the mood, lol).

Vendor Spotlight: I also invite special vendors to the “after party” to show off their wares. Sometimes they will share something new and often they offer exclusive discounts to workshop participants. Other vendors contribute by giving discounts that are made available prior to the workshop and I post those discounts in the private group on Facebook.
