

THE BALLAD OF SKIPPER KNIGHT

for SATB Chorus & Piano

Words and Music by Stephen Hatfield

$\text{♩} = 52$ a deep, lilting groove - swing sixteenths - a relaxed, conversational mf
let the dynamics rise and fall gently with the rise and fall of the line

Piano

con pedale

breathmarks indicate a phrase ending

Soprano & Alto unis, Night would come quick - ly in

Tenor & Bass unis,
Night would come quick - ly in 10

Jack - son's Cove, trim down the lamps and fire up the stove,

Jack - son's Cove, trim down the lamps and fire up the stove,

13 no breath

I'll be out watch-ing where the green growl - ers rove _____ an' the ice is moon

I'll be out watch-ing where the green growl - ers rove _____ an' the ice is moon

no breath

16

bright, There's stor-ies we tell of the fam - 'lies of yore, who bright, There's stor-ies we tell of the fam - 'lies of yore, who

19

lived by the sea and died by the score. They say they still wel-come their lived by the sea and died by the score. They say they still wel-come their