WHAT IS THE STEWARDS OF THE CONFLUENCE? This is an elite level of giving to Great Rivers Habitat Alliance whereby donors make an annual contribution of $10,000 or more to support our mission. The Stewards of the Confluence are the impetus behind our mission and the conservation, fundraising and policy achievements of Great Rivers Habitat Alliance. It represents the most significant donors within the organization.

WHO ARE STEWARDS OF THE CONFLUENCE MEMBERS? Stewards of the Confluence members are our most dedicated and influential supporters. This select group considers our mission paramount among their philanthropic priorities each year. They understand that a substantial, ongoing financial commitment is necessary for Great Rivers Habitat Alliance to reach their goal of protecting the Confluence. Stewards of the Confluence include GRHA board members, outdoor enthusiasts, duck clubs and citizens concerned with current flood plain development trends.

WHAT ARE THE IMPACTS OF THE STEWARDS OF THE CONFLUENCE? The Stewards of the Confluence helps guide and grow the organization. Members impart significant impacts. Their financial commitments form the nucleus of organizational sustainability, enabling Great Rivers Habitat Alliance to unlock support from other sources to deliver habitat conservation. The Stewards of the Confluence is at the heart of our mission and future.
