What is Ramadan?

Ramadan is celebrated by people who follow the religion of Islam. These people are called Muslims.

Ramadan is the ninth month of the Islamic calendar.

Ramadan is celebrated because Muslims believe this is the time when the Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) first received the Qur'an.

During Ramadan, Muslims over 14 don't eat or drink from dawn until dusk. This is called fasting.

Ramadan is a time of reflection, discipline and prayer so Muslims can show their gratitude to Allah.

What is Eid Al-Fitr?

Eid Al-Fitr is a Festival of thanksgiving.

'Al-Fitr' means breaking of the fast.

It begins when a crescent moon is seen in the sky at the end of Ramadan.

People greet each other during Eid Al-Fitr by saying 'Eid Mubarak'.

Eid Al-Fitr is a time of charity and gifts are often given.

Eid Al-Fitr lasts three days, during which Muslims visit family and friends and eat special foods.

1.8 billion people around the world celebrate Eid Al-Fitr.

Ramadan is the ninth month of the Islamic calendar.

Colour the Islamic months of the year. Circle the month of Ramadan.

Siyam means fasting in Arabic. Fasting is when we do not eat or drink from Fajr/dawn until Maghrib/sunset.

Colour the sign for no eating or drinking during Ramadan.

The Islamic calendar is lunar, this means that the calendar follows the patterns of the moon not the sun.

Can you spot the new Ramadan crescent moon? Circle the Ramadan crescent moon when you find it.

The Qur'an was first sent down to Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessing be upon him) on Laylat Al-Qadr, or the 'Night of Power', in the Month of Ramadan.

Read and colour some facts about Laylat Al-Qadr.

Laylat Al-Qadr

The Quran was first revealed on this night.

It is a peaceful night until Fajr.

Praying during this night is equal to praying for 1,000 months!

During the month of Ramadan, we have the chance to gain a lot of rewards when we do good deeds and when we give up bad deeds.

Write five goals you would like to achieve during Ramadan.
