

A child's early years are more important than any other. This is when children learn most about the world around them, and the language skills they need to survive and grow. For 50 years, Child's Play® has put enormous thought and care into creating exactly the right sort of material for this all-important time.

Child's Play® has a history of creating innovative, award-winning books for children that promote learning through play. Vibrant illustrations positively portray children of all cultures, nationalities, gender and abilities, helping children to develop and enjoy an understanding of our diverse society. Non-stereotypical traditions and values are fostered as a matter of course.

NEW First Feelings

Illustrated by Paula Bowles
 How are you feeling today? Children experience all kinds of feelings in a single day, but they can't always name them or talk about them easily. Developed in conjunction with a child psychologist, this essential series focuses on the six major emotions experienced by very young children. Each book uses non-gendered characters to illustrate, identify and talk about a single feeling, suggesting coping strategies where relevant. Perfect for developing empathy, resilience and a positive sense of self.

AROUND THE WORLD ON 80 HORSES
JILL NEWTON

NEW Around the World on 80 Horses Spring 2024
Jill Newton
 What is a zonkey? How can a horse sleep standing up? Who was the eight-headed horse of Indian folklore? Come on a journey around the world and meet 80 unique breeds of horses and ponies! Brimming with interesting facts, this book introduces incredible equines that can dance, talk and spell, while also showing us how different our world would be without their contribution.

Child of St Kilda

Beth Waters

An evocative picture book about the cluster of tiny islands off the west coast of Scotland, inhabited for thousands of years, but evacuated in 1930. Based on accounts from Norman John Gillies, who was born and raised on the island of Hirta, the book takes the reader through the daily and seasonal way of life led by the inhabitants. Beautiful monoprnts complement this account of a unique way of life.
